CALGARY, ALBERTA, CANADA, August 27, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today having an online presence is not enough to get in front of your customers. You need a solid web hosting provider who offers secure, robust and cheap web hosting with "next step services" (website optimization, web design, web marketing) and 24x7 support. A company that can help you with Security, WordPress, Themes, Enterprise E-mail (Zimbra and G Suite), finding an approved web developer and more is essential. And for a lot of companies based on government regulations, the website and email MUST stay in Canada.

I love most about working with Dean, is his ability to help me understand all things "techie". We have several members who always have great things to say about the team, and I highly recommend them.”
