The market size of these luxurious doors was around $XX million in the year 2018 with XX CAGR from 2014 to 2018. The market size is to reach $XX million by the end of the year 2024 with a CAGR of XX% from 2019 to 2024.

Increasing demands and preference for the high-end luxury doors from developed countries like the US can be one of the factors contributing to the expansion of these markets. Increased demand for luxury doors in the hospitality industry can be another factor responsible for market growth.

Increasing demand for hinged and sliding doors along with growing urbanization will motivate the business growth over the forecast years. Unexpected economic development and advancements in the tourism sector have upsurge the construction of restaurants, hotels, supermarkets, sports areas, cinema halls, and recreational multiplexes improving the product demand. Increasing government funds for infrastructure development, public funding, ventures and a decrease in the building material costs will fuel the global luxury doors market growth.

The high price of luxury doors can be a major difficulty for market growth. Counterfeit products and domestic brands can be a threat to the global luxury door market. Easy availability of affordable counterfeit copies of original luxury doors can result in market fragmentation.
