

United Goalkeeping USA is the official distributor for Airloop Glove Ring for the soccer goalie glove markets

United Goalkeeping USA and Airloop Glove Ring have joined forces for soccer glove sustainability and performance.

SEATTLE, WA, UNITED STATES, August 29, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This expanding patented plastic ring that is used for increased reusable glove performance and sustainability.

Insert the Airloop Glove Ring when gloves are not in use or for long term garment storage. The expanding ring when inserted in the glove cavity holds the gloves open to its widest point increasing the natural airflow to help prevent bacteria growth and facilitate glove drying.

United Goalkeeping USA a soccer goalie glove manufacture located in White Haven Pennsylvania is a official distributor for the Airloop Glove Ring for the United States soccer markets.

"We were excited to test the rings and quickly found out they helped solve the bacteria jungle that can take over Keeper's gloves and they really accelerate glove drying without damaging the latex on the palms of the gloves."-United Goalkeeping USA

The unique plastic expanding ring was developed as an effective mobile tool to help promote glove sustainability and drying gloves by simply just keeping gloves open and naturally air drying.

United Goalkeeping USA manufactures professional grade goalie gloves at an affordable price. For every pair of gloves sold, proceeds will benefit the Janet Weis Children's Hospital and Children's Miracle Network. United Goalkeeping USA and the Airloop Glove Ring ar setting higher standards in glove performance and sustainability.
