According to the Kansas Mesothelioma Victims Center, "We are advocates for a Navy Veteran or person with mesothelioma in Kansas and we are offering to assist an individual like this with documenting how, where and when they were exposed to asbestos. As we would like to discuss anytime at 800-714-0303 most of these people were probably exposed to asbestos over 40 years ago-so instant recall can be difficult.

To begin this process of developing the 'list' and or documenting the parson's exposure to asbestos we ask the following types of questions:

* "If you served in the navy what type of ship or submarine were you assigned to, and what was your duty station?"

* "Post navy or what type of job did you have when you first realized you were being exposed to asbestos?"

* "Were there additional jobs where you were exposed to asbestos?"

* "Do you recall the names of shipmates or coworkers who witnessed your exposure to asbestos?"

The Mesothelioma Victims Center has provided access to the current Environment Protection Agency's web site as a reference about how seriously the federal government now takes exposure to asbestos. There were no such rules in the 1950's, 1960's, or 1970's.
