

Good Old-Fashion Fun at the Jive Aces' Summertime Swing

An unforgettable afternoon at Saint Hill, Church of Scientology headquarters in the UK, as The Jive Aces turned back the calendar to the fabulous days of swing.

EAST GRINSTEAD, SUSSEX, UK, September 2, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- It was a day of high-energy, nonstop dancing and irrepressible fun at Saint Hill, Church of Scientology headquarters for the UK, as The Jive Aces took to the stage for the 15th annual Summertime Swing. They were joined by guest performers Clare Teal, the Girls from Oz, Peter Donegan, Bamboozle and West End diva Cassidy Janson.

The weather was perfect as hundreds gathered on the grounds of Saint Hill for an afternoon of great family fun.

Renowned worldwide for their high-energy, spectacular showmanship, their viral video "Bring Me Sunshine," their bright yellow suits, and for being the first live band to reach the final rounds of Britain's Got Talent, The Jive Aces filled the afternoon with the vibrant melodies and catchy rhythms of days gone by. Everyone joined in for a spin around the dance floor.

There were classic cars on display, vintage clothing stalls, plenty of food and an entire afternoon of English sunshine.

Summertime Swing, an annual benefit concert, raised more than £25,000 this year for local charities. It is hosted by the Church of Scientology on the grounds of Saint Hill, the lush 59-acre estate that was the home of
