Philadelphia, PA — The personal injury law firm of Haggerty, Goldberg, Schleifer & Kupersmith, P.C. represents injured victims throughout Pennsylvania. They are passionate and relentless advocates for those who have been harmed by the negligent or reckless actions of others. HGSK Lawyers are not afraid to take a stand against manufacturing companies, irresponsible individuals, and careless professionals whose actions cause severe and life-changing injuries to others.

You know, failure hurts. Any kind of failure stings. If you live in the sting, you will--undoubtedly--fail. My way of getting past the sting is to say no, I'm just not going to let this get me down.”

Sonia Sotomayor, Supreme Court of the United States

Whether representing a Philadelphia car accident victim or an injured construction worker in Montgomery County, the firm and their experienced Pennsylvania personal injury lawyers work diligently to secure the best outcome possible for personal injury cases which include workers' compensation injuries. The attorneys and their staff have battled insurance companies too many times to count. The knowledge that the HGSK lawyers have acquired about how insurance companies approach personal injury claims allows for effective creation of results-driven strategies for their clients. The firms' mission is to obtain fair and just compensation for clients needing to get back on their feet after sustaining a negligence-related injury.

HGSK's personal injury attorneys and workers' compensation lawyers have substantial amounts of experience in many practice areas – including personal injury, car accidents, motorcycle accidents, truck accidents, medical malpractice, wrongful death, premises liability, product liability, workers' compensation, and more.

When it comes to trusting a law firm with your personal injury lawsuit or another legal issue, you want to know that you're working with the best lawyers around, who have your best interests in mind.

Recently the firm released the results of 10 personal injury cases where the Pennsylvania personal injury firm won.
