Trends In The Waste Management And Remediation Services Market

Waste management companies are using technologies such as Internet of Things (IoT) for better management of waste and recycling. IoT provides solutions such as route optimization and operational analytics to reducing costs. A waste management company called Enevo created a dumpster sensor and software system which can communicate with the waste management company and tell them whether the container is at full capacity, when it needs to be emptied allowing them to cut unnecessary costs. And these sensors also can help the company forecast when a dumpster will be full, allowing them to plan ahead future routes.
