Vegas Hypnotist returns to the Comedy Castle Tues Oct 15th

Taking off from his nightly Las Vegas show inside Binion's Gambling Hall, Detroit native hypnotist Kevin Lepine returns home to the Comedy Castle in Royal Oak for a special event.

"There's going to be a lot of laughs when you or friends get turned into superstars" says Kevin.

"Vegas is very good to me, but nothing beats coming home." Lepine graduated from East Detroit High School and was named Youth of the Year. He lived all over the metro Detroit area before moving to Las Vegas in 2010. This July Binion's built a brand new theater, the Apache Showroom, just for Kevin's show.

Two time winner of "Best of Vegas", "TripAdvisor Hall of Fame" winner, and other awards Kevin Lepine is thrilling audiences nightly with his show Hypnosis Unleashed in downtown Las Vegas. Razor sharp comedy mixed with charm makes this an unforgettable immersive comedy experience.

"As racy as it is charming" says Las Vegas Magazine

"Kevin is a superstar" Dicky Barrett, announcer, Jimmy Kimmel Live

"I want my volunteers to have the time of their lives. No one has to volunteer but volunteers have even more fun than the audiences" continues Kevin. "When I make it funny and empowering to everyone onstage, everyone has a great time."
