

Palm Organix™, Leading CBD Oil Supplier, Announces Launch of THC Free - Broad Spectrum - Water Soluble CBD Energy Drink

Palm Organix™, a leader in the sale of premium, broad spectrum CBD products today announced the launch of a Zero THC CBD Water Soluble Energy Drink mix packets.

WEST NYACK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, September 6, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- West Nyack, New York: Palm Organix™, a leader in the sale of premium, broad spectrum CBD products today announced the launch of their latest product line, a Zero THC CBD Water Soluble Energy Drink mix packets.

Alex Herrera, Founder and CEO of Palm Organix™ stated "23% of Americans exercise on a regular basis and they are extremely interested in healthy options to increase their energy levels before exercising, and for ways to improve recovery time post exercise. Our Zero THC energy CBD drinks assist on both fronts." Palm Organix™ Energy and Recovery drinks are created with Broad Spectrum, water soluble PCR powder making them 100% absorbable. Each packet contains 12.5mg of CBD and 75mg of Caffeine, along with other beneficial Flavonoids and Terpenes which can simply and conveniently be added to a water bottle.

CBD Energy Drink

We are ecstatic to announce that we were able to deliver our customers a zero THC, water soluble CBD energy drink at an affordable price point.”

Herrera added “our Energy Drinks come individually packaged five to a box in a delicious berry flavor. Additionally, our Energy drinks contain Amino Acids, other cannabinoids, naturally present terpenes, vitamins, and phytocannabinoids. We anticipate from our research that the Energy drinks will be extremely popular hence we have decided to bundle them into packages of five and 10 boxes. Purchasing in bulk will give our customers 20% and 25% off respectively making our energy drinks extremely affordable and competitive in the fast growing CBD drink category.”

Consistent with the entire line of Palm Organix™ products, the Energy drinks do not contain any THC. Herrera continued, “We are ecstatic to announce that we were able to deliver our customers a zero THC, water soluble CBD energy drink at an affordable price point. Palm Organix™ anticipates many professional, and college athletes will be consuming this product which affords those subject to drug screening the peace of mind of knowing they will not fail a test searching for THC.”

Maintaining Palm Organix™ commitment to quality and excellence, the entire line of Palm Organix™ CBD products, including the CBD Energy Drinks come with Certificates of Quality Assurance and 3rd party lab testing, which are readily available on the Palm Organix website ensuring their products contain no harsh chemicals, metals, fillers and most importantly, no THC.

Palm Organix™ sells a full line of pure, premium grade CBD oil products, sourced from Phytocannabinoid Rich \(PCR\) Hemp proudly grown in the USA resulting in the purest, and strongest CBD concentrated products available. PCR Hemp is considered to be the finest, purest hemp available and superior to Foreign Hemp which is known to be inconsistent in both CBD and THC content.

Palm Organix's entire product line is completely THC free, which "differentiates Palm Organix™ from many of the other CBD companies whose products contain THC," says Herrera. "The majority of our customers for numerous reasons, including religious beliefs, work responsibilities, college and professional sports drug screening tests, simply do not want to, or are not permitted to consume THC in any capacity. We have a diverse, nationwide customer base, who use our products knowing that they will receive all the benefits of Broad Spectrum CBD without any of the negative psychoactive side effects associated with THC."

Although the Farm Bill Act of 2018 calls for THC levels to not exceed .3%, for CBD products to be legal, Palm Organix has intentionally removed all levels of THC from their entire product line. Additionally, Palm Organix™ pure premium CBD oil products have an industry high ratio of CBD to Hemp Extract versus our competitors in the CBD marketplace resulting in the finest CBD products available to consumers.

Herrera continued that "Palm Organix™, in addition to reassuring our customers that our premium CBD oil products are held to the highest standards in terms of quality, we can also promise that our prices will always be reasonable. We price our products on average, 20-25% lower than that of most of our competitors in the pure premium CBD oil category. We believe our customers deserve quality CBD products at a reasonable price, and we are proud to offer our clients both. The desire to improve one's health and well being should not break the bank."
