Hollywood Ca- After 50 years as the Pacific Pioneer Broadcasters (PPB), President and legendary radio personality Shotgun Tom Kelly, Acknowledging the vibrant expansion in 21st century entertainment, announces the formation of Hollywood Media Professionals.

“The business of broadcasting has changed significantly over the past decades, and PPB has completed its changed guidelines to accommodate professionals in all of the expanded spheres.”

President Shotgun Tom Kelly

Kelly explained, “The business of broadcasting has changed significantly over the past decades, and PPB has completed its changed guidelines to accommodate professionals in all of the expanded spheres, including podcasting, blogging, YouTube recordings, live online streaming, as well as traditional broadcasting. Established talent as well as those who help create, produce, sell and support the broadcasts are eligible to join the newly christened Hollywood Media Professionals.

This groundbreaking assemblage of professionals has its roots firmly planted in the half-century old Pacific Pioneer Broadcasters, the only organization of its type, PPB was founded in 1966 by the media professionals who pioneered in an earlier era of West coast network broadcasting, including Edgar Bergen (Charlie McCarthy), Jim Jordan (Fibber McGee) and producer Ralph Edwards who served under a prominent announcing voice of the 20th century, President Art Gilmore.
