Madadian says "Music is the universal language that help solve our problems

Hollywood Ca- Andy Madadian , www.andymusic.com
a music superstar known as the Bono of Persian music, will be the first Iranian Armenian American in Hollywood history to receive a star on the HOLLYWOOD WALK OF FAME.

Andy's ceremony comes in Jan 2020 , and is expected to see crowds of thousands show up for his star ceremony. He sells out all over the world, in Los Angeles each year he sells out the GREEK.....turning fans away each time her performs due to SRO crowds.

Andy has millions of fans globally and is now reaching out to American music fans as he has been doing music in English, recently he and Jon Bon Jovi got together to do a new version of STAND BY ME... which was applauded for its outreach to bring people together, he also did a song and video with La Toya Jackson. He sang a song in the Oscar winning movie CRASH... and his music is heard in major films often.

I want to thank my fans and the hollywood chamber of commerce for showing such diversity I applaud them.”

Andy Madadian

Andy set now to make history wants everyone to know that music is the universal language that brings us all together, he wants his star on the walk of fame to be a beacon of light that anything is possible and no matter where you come from , you can achieve anything you want.

Among his many awards, he is the recipient of the ELLIS ISLAND HONORS.

Andy has recorded music with Jon Bon Jovi, La Toya Jackson among other American music stars.
