(9/10/2019, Pittsburgh, PA): The National Veteran-Owned Business Association (NaVOBA) is in the final week of accepting nominations for the 2019 Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year™ (VBEYOY). VBEYOY is a prestigious honor bestowed annually outstanding U.S. military veteran business owners. The VBEYOY awardees demonstrate the finest attributes crucial in leading a flourishing business; sustained business growth and success; and a strong drive to cultivate veteran entrepreneurship.

“

Including numerous category winners distinguishes many more exceptional veteran business owners across the diverse scope of the veteran business community.”

NaVOBA Vice President Mimi Lohm

All nominations must be submitted by 5:00 PM EST Monday 9/16/2019.

“NaVOBA is honored to recognize the 2019 Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year™,” said NaVOBA Vice President Mimi Lohm. “We've recognized so many great vetpreneurs over the years and including numerous category winners has made it possible for us to distinguish many more exceptional veteran business owners across the diverse scope of the veteran business community.”

The Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year™ will be recognized at a special award ceremony as part of the Business Beyond the Battlefield Conference in Dallas on November 6. Additional veteran-owned businesses in the following categories were honored at special ceremonies held at corresponding events. Those honorees include the Women's, Minority, LGBT, Hispanic and Disabled Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year™.
