Programs, Inc. is pleased to announce a new integration with MooveGuru. Continuity Programs' real estate marketing software is now connected with MooveGuru's Mover Platform. This partnership creates savings that are passed on to the consumer through their real estate agent.

"This addition to MyLeadDashboard has the potential to save consumers millions on their moving expenses," said Kirk King, president of Continuity Programs. "It's simple, free, and will drive more business to the brokerages who make it available to their agents."

Within MyLeadDashboard, agents can easily enroll their homebuyers and sellers to save up to 15% or more on moving expenses. A Mover concierge is assigned to help homebuyers with moving related tasks. The integration will automate a personalized email marketing program that sends relevant money-saving offers on behalf of the broker and agent. Recognizable local and national brands such as Home Depot, Bed, Bath & Beyond, Pods, and ADT contribute the offers. The Mover concierge will help the consumer connect all utilities for their home, all at no cost.

Brokerages who make use of this integration along with the automated client follow-up programs inside of MyLeadDashboard will benefit by increasing their agents' satisfaction, and creating clients for life.

"When you have a free tool like MooveGuru and you already have all the data streams interconnected within MyLeadDashboard, it makes it really easy for the brokerages," said Scott Oakley, Head Guru of MooveGuru.
