

Bird strike sets plane engine on fire, prompts horrifying emergency landing

EDMONTON, CANADA, September 11, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The absolutely last thing anyone wants to see on a flight would be the flames licking around the wings of your plane, but that is exactly what the passengers on a domestic Canadian flight witnessed on Tuesday.

The incident happened after the Swoop airline flight from Abbotsford to Edmonton ran into a flock of geese shortly after take off, and several unfortunate birds were sucked into one of the plane's engines.

Read the full article at:

<https://www.eturbonews.com/266379/bird-strike-sets-plane-engine-on-fire-prompts-horrifying-emergency-landing/>

Editor
Travel Marketing Network
(+1) 718-374-6816
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2019 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.