Estate & Trust Team Leader*

“We are delighted to welcome Leah to our team of estate and trust attorneys that serve our growing client base in the Florida market,” said Attorney Bernard A. Jackvony, who leads the practice area. “Leah brings tremendous experience in estate and trust planning, including working with clients on multimillion-dollar real estate transactions as part of their wealth management and tax strategies. Her local volunteer work in the community adds to a superior resume of professional skills and public service that is highly commendable.”

Attorney Foertsch’s practice focuses on advising individuals and families in all areas of trust and estate planning and probate administration. Her experience also includes handling the representation of fiduciaries in all aspects of probate administration. In addition, she has extensive experience in representing individuals and businesses in asset protection, wealth management and tax strategies, and has managed multimillion-dollar real estate transactions, including structuring deals and providing title insurance for both commercial and residential properties. She also works with businesses on their succession planning strategies to meet their goals and objectives.

As a community volunteer and civic servant, Attorney Foertsch serves on the Lake Worth Beach Community Redevelopment Agency and Cultural Renaissance Foundation and has volunteered on the Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League C2Z, the Town of Palm Beach United Way Allocations Committee and as a mentor for the Children’s Home Society Project 18.

Attorney Foertsch earned her J.D. from St. Thomas University School of Law, her Master of Laws in Taxation from the University of Miami School of Law, and her undergraduate degree in sociology from Washington and Jefferson College in Pennsylvania. She is licensed to practice in Florida and is a member of the Florida Bar, Tax and Real Property, Probate and Trust sections.
