A new report added to the online inventory of Wise Guys Reports (WGR) reveals that the global king of foam tape market is set to capture a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.98% between the forecasted period 2018 and 2025. In 2017, the market was worth USD 7.09 billion which is expected to grow to USD 12.16 billion by 2025.

Foam tapes are basically pressure-sensitive and self-adhesive tapes that are coated with adhesive on one side or both sides of the foam types such as PE, PU, acrylic etc. These types of tapes are made by applying a thin adhesive layer to various foam types.

The increasing growing demand for the foam tapes in the industries for bonding, holding, mounting, splicing, and others are increasing the global king of foam market size. The report provides knowledge of the leading market players within the King Foam market.

The cost benefits offered by foam tapes are also viewed as a prominent market driver. The rising demand for the acrylic-based foam tape and growth of the end user industries are driving the global king of foam market; however, instability in the raw material prices etc is anticipated to negatively affect the market size during the projected period.
