Market Overview :

Global Water Treatment Equipment Market to Grow at 3.68% CAGR From 2018 to 2025

A new report added to the online inventory of Wise Guys Reports (WGR) announces that the global water treatment equipment market is set to capture a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 3.68% between 2018 and 2025. In 2018, the market was valued at more than USD 30.01 billion.

Water treatment consists of chemical and physical separation methods to remove unstable elements and contaminants from the water. Though water is an universal solvent, but solids including clay, fine sand, dust etc are insoluble in water and thus need water treatment equipment to reduce the total suspended solids levels.

Due to rapid urbanization, the need to establish more industries across the globe has increase greatly thus arising the need of water treatment equipment. Also, the surge in investments in water treatment equipment and facilities coupled with growth of the oil and gas industries is expected to drive the market during the forecast period. The oil and gas industry need large amounts of water thus use recycled water obtained from water treatment equipment to meet up the growing industrial demand.

The cost benefit offered by water treatment equipment is also viewed as a major market driver. However, some of the challenges including high capital and operational costs affect the growth of the global water treatment equipment market.
