

Life Settlement Company Offers Guidance for Those Looking to Sell a Policy

Many seniors are considering selling their life insurance policy to fund living expenses, long term care, leisure activities, and more.

AUSTIN, TX, USA, September 16, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- One life settlement company, Harbor Life, is urging anyone making this consideration to check all the facts before they decide to sell.

Selling a life insurance policy may be one of the hardest financial decisions a person will need to make. It is important to thoroughly weigh the pros and cons of a life settlement process before making a final choice.

Harbor Life encourages people to learn more about the process and look through some common questions and concerns such as:

- Am I eligible for a Life Settlement?
- Do I have to have a terminal disease to sell?
- Does the policy have to be above a certain amount?
- Are funds received from selling a policy taxed?
- How is the value of my life insurance policy determined?
