/EINPresswire.com/ -- I Change Nations honored King Oyo of the Kingdom of Tooro as the Worlds First Civility King. World Civility Global Spokesman, Dr Clyde Rivers and delegation from the United States traveled all the way to the Kingdom Of Tooro in Fort Portal, Uganda, Africa to Award King Oyo with a World Civility Leadership Award. The world's youngest King to ever occupy a throne. He took the throne of the Kingdom of Tooro at the Age of three. He has occupied the throne for 24 years and he is currently 27 years of age. This past Sept 12th was the 24th Coronation Anniversary and ceremony for King Oyo. It was truly a great to watch the entire country celebrate this amazing King.

Dr. Clyde Rivers and his delegation had the privilege to travel with King Oyo's entourage and see the work he has done in the development of his Kingdom. We went to the hospital in Fort Portal, where King Oyo made it possible for hundreds of people have free eye surgery as well as eye examines and hundred of people received eye glasses to correct their vision. The people where very grateful to King Oyo for this service.

The king has an environmental program to preserve the environment for the future generations of his kingdom. The people where cleaning the River from plastic bottles and other waste that is damaging the environment. Dr.Rivers said "it's amazing to see that the World's First Civility King is a man that looks out for his people and the environment." King Oyo, is that man the First King in the History of the World to win our First World Civility Award.
