The report offers detailed insights regarding the global Drug, Anti-infective market and the current trends; opportunities and threats related to the target market are also studied in the report.

The healthcare sector continues to grow at a rapid pace. Rising number of patients worldwide is putting more pressure on the sector. The doctor to population ration remains poor in third world countries and is viewed as a major challenge. However, efforts have increased towards delivering better care. Emphasis is being placed on improving both preventive and curative models. Such factors are adding new dimensions to the sector and thereby making more dynamic.

The global economy has been growing at a steady pace in recent years, which has reflected favorably on the per capita healthcare expenditure. At the same time, growing global population is driving the demand for healthcare services. This is prompting healthcare companies to deliver cost-effective services. Stricter healthcare regulations along with integration of digital platforms is making a positive impact on the overall quality of healthcare.
