

Scientology Volunteer Ministers: Digging Out After Dorian

Tackling the arduous work of cleaning up Grand Bahama Island.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, September 19, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hurricane Dorian sat on Grand Bahama Island for 48 hours, dumping three feet of rain. With 185 mph winds gusting to 220 mph and 20-foot storm surge, it created untold devastation. Scientology Volunteer Ministers are doing the arduous work of cleaning up the damage.

While some teams of Scientology Volunteer Ministers are working on the cleanup, others are delivering urgently needed supplies. Food and water are needed and hygiene supplies and baby products are also in demand.

Trained Volunteer Ministers are needed. If you can help, contact your local Church of Scientology or International Volunteer Ministers Headquarters at (800) Help-4YU.

The Church of Scientology Volunteer Minister program is a religious social service created in the mid-1970s by L. Ron Hubbard. Anyone of any culture or creed may train as a Volunteer Minister and use these tools to help their families and communities. The Church provides free online training on the Volunteer Ministers website.

For more information, follow the Scientology Newsroom.

Media Relations
Church of Scientology International
+1 3239603500
email us here
Visit us on social media:
Facebook

Reaching out to the people of the Bahamas with a helping hand.

The Volunteer Ministers are here for the long haul to help the island recover.

Armed with chainsaws and fuel that they brought to the island, the Volunteer Ministers are cleaning up Dorian's damage.

On the ground, helping the people of the Bahamas

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2019 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.

