The Film Festival celebrates humanity through the art of film with films from all over the world. The short films provide education on human rights, anti-drug, reversing moral decay and inspiring decency and kindness. More than 40 different films will be screened that day, including films made in Florida.

The Church of Scientology is honored to provide a platform for independent filmmakers who embrace a vision of building a better world and educate others that they can make a difference.”

At 6pm the awards ceremony will also be held in the Information Center, and a light buffet dinner will be served. Then, at 8:30pm the Information Center will also host the wrap-up after party. The festivities are from 12pm-9:30pm, and there is no cost to attend.

“The Church of Scientology is honored to provide a platform for independent filmmakers who embrace a vision of building a better world and educate others that they can make a difference,” said Amber Skjelset, Manager of the Information Center. “This aligns with the words of humanitarian and Scientology Founder, Mr. L. Ron Hubbard where he said, “Ideas and not battles mark the forward progress of Mankind.”

Guests are welcome to visit the Scientology Information Center in advance to fill out the registration form for their VIP pass.
