COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- You've heard the phrase, "There's gold in them thar hills!" and there's no time like the fall season to enjoy gold in Colorado's high country while staying at a romantic bed and breakfast inn. On the way, you will see splashes of golden and peach colored aspens. One possible stop might be Mueller State Park along State Highway 67, where both moderate and challenging trails will welcome you. If you're in the mood for more moderate walking trails, continue along Highway 24 west to Teller County 1, where the Florissant Fossil Beds National Monument offers winding paths among large petrified tree stumps. Once a pre-volcanic valley of gigantic Redwoods, this National Monument is one natural wonder you won't want to miss. Along the way, this beautiful valley surrounds you and offers a rare east-looking view of America's Mountain, Pikes Peak, which is most often viewed from a westward perspective from Colorado Springs.
