About Lunanid Co.

Nazhirah started designing enamel pins after she was faced with a very real problem. She realised Brunei's culture and traditions were not represented enough, which makes it harder for travellers to know what it has to share with the world. After many months of designing and researching enamel pins, Nazhirah's products started gaining notoriety amongst the pin industry. It is the first Bruneian company to introduce pin trading in Brunei Darussalam.
