

Catholic Parishioners and Scientology Volunteer Ministers Work Together to Supply Aid to Victims of Hurricane Dorian

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, September 26, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Monday the 23rd, Father Bob Swick of St. Francis of Assisi and St. Roch Catholic Churches in Dunedin and Tampa, Florida delivered donations to the Scientology Volunteer Minister center in downtown Clearwater. Volunteer Ministers (VMs) have been collecting food, preparing hygiene kits and signing up volunteers for Hurricane Dorian relief effort. So far, 80 VMs have gone to the Bahamas with over 5,000 hygiene kits and tons of food. Several volunteers have been there since September 7th.

The Scientology Volunteer Ministers (VMs) have sent over 5,000 hygiene kits to the Bahamas so far. Kits are prepared at the VM Center in downtown Clearwater.

“When I heard you had volunteers in the Bahamas already it washed away our worries in terms of making sure the supplies will go to the right people who need it,” said Father Bob. “Everyone is very concerned about our brothers and sisters in the Bahamas and we specifically wanted to donate items that would be of use to the women and children.”

“

The Volunteer Ministers center in downtown Clearwater will ensure that your donations of canned food and hygiene supplies will get to the disaster victims in the Bahamas.”

*Glendy Goodsell, ED
Scientology Volunteer
Ministers Florida*

St. Francis of Assisi and St. Roch Catholic churches donated three baby strollers, two wheelchairs, 620 disposable diapers, a box full of new soap bars, shampoo and deodorant, toilet paper, antibiotic cream, fresh socks and sandals for all ages and more.

“On behalf of the Scientology Volunteer Ministers Florida,” said Glendy Goodsell, the executive director, “we want to thank Father Bob Swick and the parishioners of St. Francis of Assisi and St. Roch for their support. It truly shows what we can accomplish when we work together to help others.

“The destruction caused by Hurricane Dorian is catastrophic and there are still thousands of people who need help. The Volunteer Ministers center in downtown Clearwater will ensure that your donations of canned food and hygiene supplies will get to the disaster victims in the Bahamas.”

The address of the Scientology Volunteer Ministers Center is 101 N. Fort Harrison Ave, Clearwater, FL 33755. For more information call 727-467-6965 or email glendy@volunteerministers.org.

Scientology Volunteer Ministers:

In 1980, Scientology Founder L. Ron Hubbard issued an appeal. At that time, Mr. Hubbard wrote, “If one does not like the crime, cruelty, injustice and violence of this society, he can do something about it. He can become a Volunteer Minister and help civilize it, bring it conscience and kindness and love and freedom from travail by instilling into it trust, decency, honesty and tolerance.” The Scientology Volunteer Minister Program was then launched. With the Support of the Church of Scientology, Volunteer Ministers (VMs) have been at every major disaster in the world since 9/11. In addition, every day, VMs help neighbors with the little disasters: marriage problems, raising children; study difficulties; getting off drugs, resolving conflicts and more.

Glendy Goodsell
Scientology Volunteer Ministers of Florida
+1 727-467-6965
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2019 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.