Counsel Bruce H. Tobey, a leading authority on water law and utility infrastructure technologies, is a featured speaker at the Florida Water Environment Association (FWEA) Regional Seminar on "Understanding Collection Systems – Rehabilitation, O&M, Pumping, I&I and Everything in Between!" on Friday, Oct. 4, 2019 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Miami-Dade Water and Sewer Department, 3071 SW 38th Avenue. Attorney Tobey will address the "Life Cycle Cost Analysis For Decision Making In Collection System Rehabilitation" from 2 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. For more information on the FWEA and to register for the event, visit <https://fwea.org/>.

Attorney Tobey is a nationally recognized water law legal advisor, representing governments including municipalities, counties, public authorities and federal agencies, as well as private companies on environmental policy, programs, and financial and regulatory matters with a specialty in water and wastewater infrastructure, public-private partnerships (P3), and other business development opportunities for sustainable communities. With more than 30 years of both public and private sector experience, Attorney Tobey is a frequent guest speaker at national trade association events, published author, and has testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Transportation and Infrastructure Committee's P3 Panel.

Attorney Tobey is the former Mayor of Gloucester, MA and served as a senior attorney at the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority. He previously held numerous other prominent leadership positions including President of the Massachusetts Municipal Association, Chair of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Local Government Advisory Committee and the Massachusetts Local Government Advisory Commission, and he served on the state's Federal Stimulus Task Force.
