Wood Badge is an advanced leadership course for Scouts and Scout leaders. It is the equivalent of an Eagle Scout level for an adult Scout volunteer. The Scout program is one of the most important we currently have for our youth. Being able to contribute on such a broad scale to help tomorrow's leaders is a privilege."

"The Scout program is one of the most important we currently have for our youth" said Titus. Being able to contribute on such a broad scale to help tomorrow's leaders is a privilege." Mr. Titus has been an Eagle Scout for over 55 years. He is also a National Eagle Scout Association Legacy Society Fellow and a James E. West

Fellow at the local council level.

L. Ron Hubbard, Founder of Scientology and Eagle Scout himself, also felt that Scouting was very important. He said, "Of all the various information which became important to me, such as photography, woodlore, signaling and many other subjects, the basis of it was laid in Scouting. I am very indebted to a great many, very fine men who gave their time and attention to a restless, boisterous and extremely active boy and teenager, and I must have tried their patience many times but I never heard of it from them."

Troop 313 is open to boys of any faith, as is any troop of the BSA program. Boys in Scouting are encouraged to be faithful and loyal, as laid out in the Scout Oath and Law.
