

Cogent Analytics Earns Another Growth Award - Ranks 14 on Triad's Fast 50 Companies

Cogent Analytics ranks 14th on the Triad Business Journal's Fast 50 Awards; earning its second prestigious growth award this year.

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, September 27, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Greensboro, North Carolina – September 2, 2019 The Triad Business Journal Fast 50 Awards revealed that COGENT ANALYTICS is No. 14 on its annual Triad Fast 50, 2019; the most prestigious ranking of the area's fastest-growing private companies.

Almost 500 people gathered at Congdon Hall on the campus of High Point University to celebrate the Triad Business Journal's 2019 class of Fast 50 winners.

Cogent joins the ranks of among the areas' most elite high growth companies. To be eligible, companies must be private, for-profit companies with U.S. headquarters based in the Triad. They must also have completed three full fiscal years, with at least $2 million in revenue in 2018. The accounting partner, Smith Leonard, verified and ranked the nominated companies using a formula that considers both dollar and percentage growth.

"I am honored every day to be serving the American small business owner," says Rob Braiman, CEO and Managing Member of Cogent Analytics. "We are genuinely passionate about helping small businesses succeed which in turn improves the lives of the owners and families and strengthens the communities in which they live. This first time ranking of 14 is a testament to our commitment to deliver solid solutions to business owners with integrity and transparency."

Robin Braiman, CFO, Cogent Analytics states further, "I am proud to call the Triad area my home and headquarters of our business. This area fosters business growth and has great institutions of learning which nurture a vast pool of talent; and, equally important, it affords us, our family and our employees a great quality of life."
