

PDL Announce New London Office - Private investigation company opens new capital location.

Established private investigation company PDL has opened a new Central London office to meet growing demand for its services from clients nearby

LONDON, UK, October 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The location of the new site - 48 Dover Street - is ideally suited to the strong proportion of PDL's London clients based in Mayfair and Westminster, whilst also being central and accessible to all clients in London and the surrounding areas.

The office, which sits between Mayfair and St James, and is served by Green Park and Piccadilly Circus London Underground stations, is open 8:30am - 6pm Monday to Friday.

From this centralised base, PDL's private detectives are able to host, travel to meet, or arrange walking meetings with both corporate and individual clients with ease.

We're delighted to announce our move to Dover Street. This represents a huge growth in numbers of clients based in Mayfair, Westminster and the surrounding areas”

Peter Torley

Peter Torley, PDL's owner and lead detective said “We're delighted to announce our move to Dover Street. This represents a huge growth in numbers of clients based in Mayfair, Westminster and the surrounding areas.”

He continued on the subject of PDL's move and ongoing plans, “By moving our base from Shoreditch to Mayfair, we can better accommodate our clients nearby whilst simultaneously establishing a location more accessible to our clients in general. This efficiency is vital in allowing us to focus on what we do best - good detective work that achieves success for all clients.”
