

Charis Bible College Honored in Congress For 25th Anniversary

On Sept. 28, Charis Bible College celebrated its 25th anniversary on campus with Charis alumni, students and invited guests.

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Sept. 24, 2019, Congressman Doug Lamborn serving Colorado's 5th Congressional publicly honored Charis Bible College before the 116th Congress of the United States in Washington, D.C.

He said that it was “nothing short of miraculous” that from the time Charis Bible College, originally known as Colorado Bible College, was founded in 1994, it has grown from graduating 33 students from its Colorado campus, to graduating students worldwide on its other 26 U.S. and 22 international campuses.

Representative Lamborn expounded on the local importance of the Charis Colorado headquarters campus:

“In my district, the Charis campus provides multiple programs of Bible-based education including a practical government degree. It also hosts faith-based events throughout the year with discussions on Christian art, culture, and politics,” Lamborn said. “Charis Bible College was created by Andrew Wommack, who has been a pioneer in Christian education and ministry. His vision to have men and women steeped in scripture has changed countless lives in my district and around the world.”
