

Tampa Bay Performer Joanie Sigal Wowed Audience Again at the Scientology Information Center

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, October 3, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On September 29th, 2019 the Scientology Information Center in downtown Clearwater hosted noted performer, Ms. Joanie Sigal for a memorable concert in honor of Fall.

Sigal returned to the Center and the place where her Tampa Bay singing career began over 20 years ago. Sigal performed popular songs from Broadway musicals and classic films including, Wicked, Fiddler on the Roof, Phantom of the Opera and The Secret Garden with narration on the history of each song.

Joanie Sigal inspired the audience on September 29th at the Scientology Information Center. Thousands of residents and tourists have enjoyed the center's tours and events since its opening in July 2015.

"With a vocal range that approaches opera and years of theatrical experience – Sigal enchanted the audience with what her fans refer to as an 'angel voice,'" said Amber Skjelset, event organizer and manager of the Scientology Information Center.

At the event's close Sigal received a standing ovation. Sigal took the opportunity to invite guests to upcoming events at the Information Center including the Halloween-themed live dramatic reading by the L. Ron Hubbard East Coast Theatre of, Danger in the Dark which she narrates (Friday, October 25th, 6:30pm) and her own Holiday Concert with Christmas favorites to sing along to (Sunday, December 8th, 6:30pm).

One guest and dedicated fan remarked after the concert, "I have to admit, hearing Joanie sing literally brought tears to my eyes!"

"The Scientology Information Center not only provides information on Scientology, it is also a venue for complimentary cultural events such as performances and parties which strengthen community bonds," said Skjelset.

The Information Center's doors are open daily, 10am-10pm, Mon-Wed, 10am-8pm on Thurs; and 1pm-10pm on Saturday. No appointment is necessary.
