About the Artist

Jan Tetsutani gave up the dream of becoming an artist a little before graduating high school over 30 years ago. It wasn't until 2011 through unexpected events that caused her passion for art to be reignited again realizing her dream was not actually dead, but just dormant. She hopes her story will help others to realize that their dreams can also become a reality.

In 2016, shortly after Four Seasons Resort O'ahu at Ko'Olina recently opened she was invited to be a part of a curated artist program called FSWayfinders where she sells her work, paints live in the lobby & hosts painting workshops. She was commissioned to do a mural at the recently built luxurious Timbers Resorts in Kauai and is a featured artist at the popular local eatery Tanioka's Seafood & Catering. She was invited to exhibit her work in Nagoya, Japan and host workshops in 2018. Her artwork is represented at Manoa Gallery and is available in other establishments including places like Tokyo, Japan.
