PUNE , MAHARASHTRA , INDIA , October 10, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cinnamon Flavors add cinnamon taste in the food. The flavors are made of 100 percent natural ingredients and don't cause any side effect in the body. The flavors are made of evergreen trees' bark. There are two major types of cinnamon. These are Cassia and Ceylon. The cinnamon that is available in the market is Cassia. Ceylon cinnamon is very rare and comes with rich properties.

The flavors come in two different forms, i.e., liquid and powder. The liquid or oil contains different compounds, but there is a huge level of cinnamaldehyde, which is around 60 to 75 percent. However, both the powder and oil offer various health benefits. For example, cinnamon can help to deal with digestive problems, respiratory illness, and various gynaecological problems. Besides, different studies have proved that it works as an anti-inflammatory which dramatically enhances the cognitive function. Most of the component of cinnamon oils display antifungal, antibacterial and antiviral properties.
