Rudy Lira Kusuma also gave a presentation about the company's mission and their worthy cause to take a portion of their income to donate to a few non-profit organizations that they support, such as Children Hospital's of Los Angeles and the World Harvest. This year, the real estate company is on a mission to raise at least $100,000 to donate to both organizations. Dr. Daniel Hanafi, the founder of the World Harvest, was also present at the event and gave a presentation about their recent mission camp in Tanzania, Nepal, and other countries to help build medical camp and education for the impoverished children and families in those countries.

The said event was also a way of the company to show their gratitude for the continuous support and trust that they receive from their clients and team. They are empowered to enhance their good relationships with their clients and to the community. With the success that they experience, the team of the real estate company is more inspired to develop the best solutions to make the best of their services.

Your Home Sold Guaranteed Realty, Inc. is composed of a dedicated team that only wants the best for their clients. They treat their clients like family, so they always serve with great responsibility to bring positive results for their clients.
