

Kim Campbell Named As One Of Mortgage Banking's Most Powerful Women 2019

Mortgage veteran honored as an industry leader and innovator

LEWISVILLE, TX, UNITED STATES, October 15, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- National home mortgage lender NTFN, Inc., dba Premier Nationwide Lending, is proud to announce National Mortgage Professional Magazine has selected Kim Campbell, Vice President of Operations, as a top female leader in the mortgage profession. Honorees were chosen based on accomplishments where they were instrumental to a major industry innovation as well as exemplifying three keywords, "Pioneer, Leader, and Innovator."

"Kim is a vital member of our management team and we are thrilled to celebrate this honor with her," said NTFN, Inc. President Blake Priest. "She truly lives out our mission statement of helping borrowers one loan at a time and has been invaluable in growing our brands and presence nationwide."

Kim Campbell, VP of Operations

Campbell has more than seventeen years' tenure with NTFN, Inc. and is an innovative leader and mentor to the company's operations team. She is passionate about educating and guiding people through the home buying process. Kim's work philosophy is, "One rotten strawberry ruins the whole bunch. Teamwork, teaching and having a positive attitude are what matters when issues arise."

Kim is a vital member of our management team and we are thrilled to celebrate this honor with her.”

Blake Priest

An avid alumni supporter of Texas Tech University, Kim spends her free time with her three children and their many school and sports activities.
