

Student Government at EEACS Giving Students a Voice

Executive Education Academy Charter School's student government encourages responsibility, social interaction, and personal growth.

ALLENTOWN, PA, UNITED STATES, October 17, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown offers a student government group. All students are eligible to become members. Together they support personal growth, encourage responsibility, promote academics, and facilitate social interaction.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown offers a student government group.

"The group focuses a lot on peer support and encouraging positive behavior in their friends and fellow students," says Tamara Klas, chief school director for elementary students at the Allentown charter school.

Students who are members of the student government have several important tasks. In addition to promoting positive behavior, they help support staff, enforce student processes, and provide mentoring.

Students who wish to become members must complete a pledge log.

Student government is one of the many organizations students can participate in at the Lehigh Valley charter school. Other student activities include drama club, book club, journalism club, basketball club, and scouting.
