

Houston Mayor Sylvester Turner Visits Houston EB5's Latest Project, The Allen

The project is a high-end, multi-use development which will include multiple luxury residences, hotels, and other amenities.

HOUSTON, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, October 17, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Houston EB5 is pleased to announce Houston Mayor, Sylvester Turner, visited the company's latest project, The Allen, on August 21st, 2019.

The Allen is a comprehensive project being developed along the Allen Parkway by DC Partners, with investment from Tianqing Real Estate Development and Westmont Hospitality Group. The Allen is a luxury, multi-use development which will include a variety of high-end brands and amenities, such as Thompson Hotel, the Residences at The Allen, a lifestyle pavilion, designer retail spaces, world-class office buildings, and so much more.

"Our latest project is quite substantial, meaning there will be a host of benefits to the local community," says Roberto Contreras, CEO of DC Partners and Houston EB5. "Our statistics indicate Phase 1 of The Allen will support 1,731 new jobs and increase Houston MSA Labor Income by $128.8M, with an additional $176.5M for input and commodities. Additionally, our numbers indicate the project will bring more than $78M in foreign and direct investment to Houston."

In August, Houston Mayor, Sylvester Turner, visited The Allen to discuss the economic and community impact of the $500M-plus project. The Mayor attended the site with Andy Icken, City of Houston's Chief Development Officer.

"We were very pleased to welcome Mayor Turner and Mr. Icken to the project's site," stated
