Whimzy Tees is a highly expressive and innovative brand. The perfect marriage between art and fashion. Our fashion aesthetic is the love child between Harajuko Station and Parisian Underground.”

Whimzy Tees's Vintage Poster line of clothing brims with intense graphics, bright colors, and period patterns that reflect the Art Deco era. The collection features geometric shapes that exude retro flair. You'll find imagery that reflects 1920s style and color combinations. When perusing the line, look for hip quatrefoil patterns like you'll see in the Cafe Deluxe Capris or the chic competing patterns of the Cafe Deluxe AOP Crop Tee. The line exudes vibrancy with its bold color combinations and distinctive retro images.

Artistic Inspiration

In order to create its signature new Vintage Poster line, Whimzy Tees looked to the chief poster artists of the era like the masterful fashion illustrator Rene Grau. The collection celebrates the art of vintage advertisements and renowned artistic movements. And, of course, it wouldn't be Whimzy Tees if there weren't some fabulous whimsical offerings like the fun "Floral Flapper Girl Crop Tee."

International Flair

One of the unique features of this new collection by Whimzy Tees is its infusion of global influences. From the Moroccan-inspired quatrefoil patterns to the kimono-clad figures inspired by Kyoto, the imagery reflects a decided international flavor that complements the image artistry. Tahitian scenes, Galapagos seas, temple dancers, Native American chiefs--the images will wow you with their diverse inspirations.

High-Quality Fabrics

The new Vintage Poster collection from Whimzy Tees clearly has it in the looks department, but customers should also note that each garment is created with high-quality fabric. Some fabrics included in the line are ring-spun cotton, poly fleece, spandex, and elastane. The fabrics are designed to promote exceptional comfort. They move, cling, and stretch just the way you want them to. Moreover, the garments are oh-so-soft to the touch and feel great against the skin.
