

Advanced Medical Solutions Selects AssurX Quality Management and Regulatory Compliance Software

AssurX Platform will Automate and Standardize Quality Operations in the UK, Netherlands, Germany and the Czech Republic

MORGAN HILL, CA, UNITED STATES, October 22, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AssurX, Inc. (AssurX), a leader in quality management and regulatory compliance software, announced today that Advanced Medical Solutions Group plc (AMS), a developer and manufacturer of world-leading advanced wound care and wound closure products, has selected the AssurX platform to automate their quality and compliance management processes.

With headquarters in the UK, the Advanced Medical Solutions group of companies has six manufacturing sites located in the UK, Netherlands, Germany and the Czech Republic. Its products are sold in over 75 countries through a network of partners and distributors, as well as the company's direct sales team. AssurX's enterprise quality management software (QMS) will unify quality processes and visibility across all manufacturing locations.

The company's implementation plan includes a well-planned, phased approach. Phase I will include developing processes for non-conformance and corrective and preventive action (CAPA) with integrations to existing applications. The AssurX system will be integrated with visualization software to create reports, dashboards, charts that provide insights needed to make informed business decisions. Phase II will integrate document management and training management processes into the quality management system.

"AMS is dedicated to making the highest quality products" explained Stella Woodward, Head of Quality, Advanced Medical Solutions. "Our advancement to an electronic system will allow us to improve compliance and to support company growth through integration into a single consistent harmonized Quality Management System (QMS) across the AMS business units".

"AssurX is pleased to have Advanced Medical Solutions as a customer," said Tamar June, CEO of AssurX. "Quality and compliance in the medical device industry requires constant adaption to change. The AssurX platform is designed to transform with regulatory, industry, and business requirements to help our customers create quality systems that help build safe products faster."
