

Houston's Pack It Movers Launches Monthly 'Making Moves for Charity' Program with NFLPA as its First Recipient

New Program will Support a Different Charitable Organization Every Month

HOUSTON, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, October 22, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pack It Movers, a Houston packing and moving company, is launching a new program called Making Moves for Charity to support a different charitable organization or cause in the Houston Area every month!

Pack It Movers is kicking-off the Making Moves for Charity program with the Houston Chapter of the National Football League Players Association (NFLPA). The company is sponsored The NFLPA's Huddle Up Foundation of Houston's Tees 4 Teal Ovarian Cancer Celebrity & Ballers golf tournament Rooftop Party at Top Golf on October 18, 2019, and is donating a portion of all of their October moves to the Houston Huddle Up Foundation to help provide Youth Outreach, Scholarships, Health, Education, and Life Skills programs for Houston Area youth, in cooperation with former NFL players!

charity or cause for the new monthly program.

“We’ve been giving back to the Houston community since we launched five years ago, but wanted to establish a consistent program to help more people,” said Anthony Johnson, Founder and CEO of Pack It Movers. “We’ve done a couple charity drives like this in the past, and our customers and employees really appreciated knowing their moves were doing good things for people in and around Houston.”

Pack It Movers has been partnering with charitable causes in the Houston community since their launch in 2014. In the past year the company has helped provide a mechanical van-lift for a 5-year-old Houston boy whose custom wheelchair was stolen, sent another local boy, born without a right hand and lower arm, to a special camp in Idaho for children with limb loss, launched their
