All teams play in the school's state-of-the-art facilities, which include a 16,000 square-foot, 1,600 seat gymnasium that was dedicated in 2019. EEACS competes against other public, private, and charter schools in the Lehigh Valley and Greater Philadelphia area.

"Just like they're learning teamwork, cooperation, and communication in the classroom, we are teaching our student-athletes these same skills out on the court," says Mark "Duke" Wagner, athletic director at the Lehigh Valley charter school.

EEACS's student-athletes have had a successful inaugural year, with the boys varsity basketball team winning a Basketball District Title in its first year of competition.
