

The OIX Announces Further Expansion Into The Fortune 500

Seeking to manage global tax credits and incentives, International Paper and Cargill join the list of Fortune 500 companies using The OIX cloud-based technology

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, US, October 24, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The OIX today announced that International Paper, a global leader in manufacturing renewable packaging, pulp, and paper products, as well as Cargill, an international agribusiness leader with operations in more than 70 countries, join the growing list of Fortune 500 organizations utilizing The OIX cloud-based credits and incentives (C&I) management technology to centralize and manage their global incentive portfolios.

With a wealth of highly complex government incentives being managed from locations around the world, both International Paper and Cargill are among major Fortune 500 organizations who have recognized the need to control and manage their portfolios in a secure, reliable, and centralized platform.

Laurence Sotsky, Chief Executive Officer at The OIX, had this to say: "International Paper and Cargill are global leaders in their respective industries. They both strive to produce products that people depend on every day and as a result of this production, they invest heavily in projects and in people that generate tax credits and incentives at an unbelievable scale." Laurence went on to say, "We are very pleased at the accelerated adoption we are seeing in the manufacturing space and are delighted to welcome Cargill and International Paper as our newest customers."

The OIX is the fintech industry's first and largest cloud-based technology company focused on tax credits and incentives management, empowering tax and finance professionals on teams around the world to seamlessly analyze, control, and optimize their global C&I portfolios, enabling collaboration, standardizing workflows, ensuring compliance, improving forecasting and reporting, and significantly reducing the possibility of slippage.

International Paper and Cargill join 21st Century Fox, Tyson Foods, Sony Pictures Entertainment, CBS, and Entertainment One, among others, on the growing list of global companies to utilize The OIX tax credits and incentives management platform.
