For those who may not be familiar with Pappy Van Winkle, a backstory might just leave you drooling for a taste. Van Winkle whiskey is exclusive, hard to find and tastes like no other whiskey on the market. With the beginning years of this distillery embedded within the times of Prohibition, Julian "Pappy" Van Winkle helped to pave the liquor industry today. Four generations later, Buffalo Trace offered to take over. Julian III was honored by the offer, and with the growing popularity of this whiskey and a concern to keep the premium quality, he accepted. In 2002 Buffalo Trace started to produce this whiskey following the exact recipe and splurging to maintain the strict quality standards that gave this whiskey its fame.

stand up against any Cognac after-dinner sipper. The rich, deep and elegantly balanced palate lends to a coffee and bitter herb finish. Sip it neat, or add a little ice to watch the taste evolve further. Available now at CaskCartel.com, or through their once-in-a-lifetime Pappy Giveaway.

Pappy Van Winkle's Family Reserve Bourbon 23 Year Old Whiskey

Aged for 23 years, Pappy Van Winkle's Family Reserve Bourbon 23 Year Old Whiskey is one of the most elusive bourbons in the world. This highly sought-after bottle uses one of the most expensive and careful distilling methods. This whiskey is best enjoyed neat, why try to change something so perfect? Adding water or ice only dilutes this unique palate.
