This herbal tea collection is designed to showcase the Zodiac and Constellations that make our tea connoisseur feel as though they are truly in harmony with their personal universe allowing them to relax, feel enlightened and balanced.

The tea collection capitalizes on the upward trend to consume organic ingredients and hygge which is a Danish trend to create relaxation and coziness in the home. Organic flowers, herbs, roots and leaves are the primary ingredients in the blends and also include an increasingly popular anti-inflammation remedy, turmeric tea. Add-on accessories include tea ball infusers, tea infuser bottles, hand-stamped vintage spoons and indulgent bath bombs.

The collection ranges from $10-$150.

Clara is excited to welcome her fans to the new handmade product line collection and has already enjoyed pre-launch sales.
