

Fran Briggs Releases The Best of Fall Reading, 2019

List puts the spotlight on a select few of talented and distinguished authors from the U.S.A., Asia, and the U.K.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, November 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fran Briggs is recognizing authors at the forefront in their genre. The award-winning journalist has announced the Best of Fall Reading, 2019. The annual promotion is designed to put the spotlight on a select group of authors from the U.S.A. to the U.K.

"It's a great list to help readers make quality decisions as it pertains to their fall reading selections expected to do well over the next year and beyond," explained Briggs. "The Best of Fall Reading, 2019" list is organized using a short synopsis of each book, the publisher, author's name, and a link for additional information and purchase. In every case, the pages will turn quickly."

Selections assembled include humor, spiritual, urban literature, wit, wisdom, and mystery. The books were chosen to showcase the author's literary vision through their subject, originality, creativity, impact, originality, influence, and quality.

"This is not a compilation of 'greatest hits,' but rather a list that highlights some of the best of fall reading. Readers can expect to take a journey to an exotic places; come face-to-face with forces of nature; add to their intellect, and more. These authors deserve recognition," Briggs concluded.
