

Assemblo named as leading marketing agency in Australia

MELBOURNE , AUSTRALIA, November 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Full-service marketing agency Assemblo has been recognised as one of Australia's leading marketing and advertising agencies in the annual 2019 Clutch rankings.

Assemblo ranked among the top five companies in this year's Marketing and Advertising category, based on its skill sets, commitment to client satisfaction and thought leadership.

Washington D.C.-based Clutch ranked companies on a variety of factors, including their market presence, client reviews, past and current projects, and their technological and marketing expertise.

"We're incredibly proud of the award and would like to acknowledge the talents and efforts of our team across strategy, design, content marketing, software development and account management," said Steve De Niese, founder and creative director at Assemblo.

"The award is a reflection of our laser-like focus on client satisfaction and strategies that generate real, measurable results."

"We've been combining digital and traditional marketing strategies to help businesses grow since 2010, so it's an honour for us to receive this award," said James McInerney, founder and business director Assemblo.

The Top B2B Companies Australia 2019 rankings also featured firms from other categories such as creative and design, development, and IT and business services.

"Clutch is excited to see the Australian technology sector flourishing, and we are even more excited that so many top agencies have gotten involved with our platform in the past year," said Clutch senior business analyst Katie Chambers.

"A big congratulations to these companies – we look forward to learning more about the exciting projects your teams take on in the upcoming year."
