NB PRIVATE CAPITAL ANNOUNCES HIRE OF SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - NATIONAL ACCOUNTS

Seasoned Veteran to Head Up National Accounts Team

NB Private Capital, LLC, a nationally recognized real estate firm specializing in student housing, has hired Albert Thompson as Senior Vice President of National Accounts. According to an announcement by Jason Kjellson, Senior Vice President and National Sales Manager for NBPC, in this new position at the company, Thompson will be responsible for all aspects of growing and servicing the firm's participating selling partners.

Thompson has been in the industry for more than 20 years having started his career at Van Kampen Investments and worked in the capacity of an internal and external wholesaler for different wirehouse advisors in Central and Northern Florida. His previous affiliations were in account management positions with Hines Securities and leading the National Account team as Director of Capital Markets for Ascendant Capital. He currently holds Series 6, 7, 63 and 24 registrations.

NBPC has grown by more than $300 million in assets and raised close to $180 million in investor capital. Albert is going to be pivotal in helping tell our story of transparency and risk management.”

Jason Kjellson

“Since our reorganization in early 2018 NBPC has grown by more than $300 million in assets and has raised close to $180 million in investor capital”, said Kjellson. Adding, “Albert is going to be pivotal in helping us tell our story of transparency and risk management. I could not be happier to have a professional of Albert's caliber join our rapidly growing team.”
