(VANCOUVER, B.C.) November 5, 2019 – Vancouver Film School is proud to announce a new exclusive partnership initiative with Casting Workbook to award full and partial scholarship funding to aspiring actors hoping to join VFS's intensive acting programs in 2020.

Casting Workbook is an industry-leading application suite that relays actor portfolio materials to talent agencies, casting directors, and production teams across cities and continents. The platform has helped cast more than 346,000 roles in film, television, commercial, and voice-over work, with clients including Netflix, ABC, Universal, and Disney.

Through this new initiative, VFS and Casting Workbook will award two full-tuition scholarships to lucky applicants: one for the 12-month Acting for Film & Television program, and another for the four-month Acting Essentials program. Additionally, up to $250,000 in partial tuition funding will be awarded to runner-up applicants.

Together, VFS and Casting Workbook aim to provide aspiring actors with the tools they need to succeed in the creative economy.

"We are thrilled to be partnering with Vancouver Film School," said Casting Workbook CEO Susan Fox. "VFS not only embraces technology, but involves the working industry to enhance the student experience and greatly improve their readiness to become a part of the entertainment industry."

The winners will be announced in December 2019.
