"I am truly honored and beyond grateful that I have been selected as a nominee out of the hundreds of amazing designers for the 2019 Ciné Fashion Film Emerging Designer Award. This means so much to me. Especially with the collection I will be showing, my largest collection to date. I really experimented and went outside of my comfort zone while creating this collection. Therefore, having this collection recognized is extremely sensational for me. Thank you Cinémoi," said A'kai.

Daphna Ziman, president of Cinémoi said "A'kai is our hope for the future. In him we see the essence of elegance that is timeless and enticing. Out of hundreds of amazing designers we chose A'kai because of his great talent, but also because of his kindness and grace with which A'kai welcomes fashion lovers into a magnificent world of art and design."
