The Jet Surfboards look like a normal surfboard but in actuality, they have an electric motor which is powered by the attached lithium battery. The market of Jet Surfboards was not as driven as it has been over the last few years. Since Jet Surfboards are an expensive equipment, and can only be used for water sports, group of people who purchase Jet Surfboards is very condensed. Through the increasing awareness about water games and competition has led to an increased interest of youngsters in water related sports and equipment like Jet Surfboards. There has been a shift in trend of the people who are buying these Jet Surfboards and the market is thus likely to grow further in the years to come.

Market Segmentation

The market can be segmented on the basis of type or on the basis of product end-users or the direct application. When grouped on the basis of types, the market can be split into: Jet Surfboards of electric motor type and Jet Surfboards of petrol motor type. Of these two, the electric motor type is more popular. On the basis of application, Jet Surfboards can be categorized as online sales and offline sales.
